

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair uses public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. We the public deserve to hear/see both sides of important issues. Our recourse when pushed is to refuse to buy products advertised on Sinclair outlets. But immediately the FCC must act in the public interest and order that either this one-sided "news" hour not be shown or a similar show such as "Going Upriver" be shown in equal time.

Sincerely,
Shirley Riley
